

Isaiah 40:9—11 | God's arms

Study Questions from 01.12.2019 sermon

An announcement

- i. Have you ever heard an announcement which filled you with joy and excitement? If so, share it with your group!
- ii. Read Isaiah 40:9. What is this announcement about and why is the announcer to shout the message on a high mountain and not be afraid?
- iii. Taking note of the phrases 'good news' and 'Here is your God', what New Testament passages does Isaiah 40:9 point us to?

What is Jesus like?

- iv. Read Isaiah 40:10. Which words contribute to the Lord being described as a conquering king?
- v. In what ways do we experience/know Jesus as the Conquering King in our world/lives today? If you can, share a specific instance from your life.
- vi. Read Isaiah 40:11. Which words contribute to the Lord being described as a caring king?
- vii. In what ways do we experience/know Jesus as the Caring King in our world/lives today? If you can, share a specific instance from your life.

Good news worth shouting about

- viii. How can we do the 21st century equivalent of fearlessly shouting from a mountaintop the good news about Jesus... this advent and Christmas season?